IT'S NOW IN COURT

James Sherlock's Latest Application for a License

TO OPERATE THAT SALOON

At the Corner of Monroe and Waterlo Streets-The Court Will Decide It After All.

The papers in the mandamus proceeding of James Sherlock against the city were served on the mayor and cierk yesterday. They cite the defendants to appear in the supreme court next Tuesday and show cause why Sherlock was not granted a license to run a saloon at Waterloo and Monroe

Section 55 of title 3 of the city charter gives the council power "to license and Ja regulate the keepers of hotels, taverns and other public houses, grocers and keepers of ordinaries, calcons and victualing and other houses or places for furnishing meals or food; to restrain, license and regulate alloons, and to regulate and prescribe the location

The allegation of the plaintiff through his attorneys, Morse, McGarry & Mcknight is that the council has no discretionary power as to the location of a saloon, and must grant a license where the bond is proper and accepta-ble and the precedure otherwise in ble and the precedure otherwise in proper form.

City Attorney Taylor said yesterday that according to numerous former decisions of the supreme court the city is not obliged to show any cause for not granting a license. In the Van Dam and Pollock case of several months ago the court did not even issue the preliminary writ. In the case of Christopher Post against the village of Sparts, the writ was denied in a case quite similar to the present one. quite similar to the present one.

Made It Lively in Court.

Frances Odjeoski, charged with assault and battery, appeared in police court yesterday and made considerable fun for the crowd and some annoyance to the judge by her incessant talk in the Polish tongue. An interpreter was employed to translate her talk, but his greatest effort seemed to be directed toward an attempt to suppress her. toward an attempt to suppress her. She shook her first at the interpreter, the lawyers and the judge. All she said was not interpreted, but the court heard enough to decide that $9.58 would pay the fine and costs.

More "Hobos" Arrested.

John Granger was arrested last night on a warrant for assault and battery. It was alleged that Granger was impli-cated with Ed Troy in the recent troubles the hobo gang had with Matt Lehnenan. James O'Donnell, another festive hobo, is also mentioned in the warrant and he will probably be arrested today.

Over twelve years I was afflicted with a very serious lemaie difficulty and for the last sixteen months was under treatment of three of the very best physicians that money could employ. Under their skillful treatment I gradually grew worse, until they decided they could render me no permanent help. One of my friends persuaded me to try a bottle of Dullam's Great German Uterine Tonic, and after taking three bottles, I can say I am in better health than I have been for twenty years, and am now 60 years old, but feel as young as at 30.
